2.7 By-Laws

- (a) The Board may make, adopt, amend or repeal By-Laws with respect to the rights that are to apply to any class or classes of members or with respect to any matter or thing for the purpose of giving effect to any provision of this Constitution or generally for the purposes of carrying out the objects of the Company, which By-Laws are binding on the members.
- (b) To the extent of any inconsistency, this Constitution prevails over the By-Laws.

3 General Meetings

3.1 Annual general meetings

Subject to the Act: -

- (a) an annual general meeting ("AGM") of the Company must be held within 18 months after its registration and thereafter at least once in every calendar year and within 5 months after the end of the Financial Year of the Company;
- (b) if the Company has only one member, an AGM is not required to be held;
- (c) an AGM is to be held in addition to any other general meeting.

3.2 Deemed holding of annual general meeting

An AGM will be deemed to have been held if the Company has held a general meeting at which Resolutions have been passed dealing with all matters required to be dealt with at an AGM. This does not affect the obligation to hold an AGM as required by the Act or this Constitution.

3.3 Convening of general meetings

In relation to the convening of general meetings:

- (a) the Board may convene general meetings to be held at any place the Directors think fit;
- (b) a general meeting must be convened by the Directors as soon as practicable following a requisition of Members in the manner provided for by the Act.

3.4 Notice of general meetings

- (a) Subject to the Act, at least twenty one (21) days notice of every general meeting must be given in the manner provided by this Constitution to the Members entitled to attend, the Directors and any other persons entitled under the Act to receive such notice.
- (b) Except as permitted by the Act, at least twenty one (21) days notice of every general meeting at which it is proposed to pass a Special Resolution must be given in the manner provided by this Constitution to the Members entitled to attend, and any other persons entitled under the Act to receive notices.

3.5 Contents of notice of general meetings

Every notice convening a general meeting must:

- (a) set out the place, date and time for the meeting (and if the meeting is to be held in 2 or more places, the technology that will be used to facilitate this);

- (b) state the general nature of the meeting's business;
- (c) if a special resolution is to be proposed at the meeting - set out an intention to proposed the special resolution and state the resolution;
- (d) if a member is entitled to appoint a proxy- contain a statement setting out the following information:
 - (i) that the member has a right to appoint a proxy;
 - (ii) whether or not the proxy needs to be a member of the company;
 - (iii)that a member who is entitled to cast 2 or more votes may appoint 2 or more proxies and may specify the proportion or the number of votes each proxy is appointed to exercise;
- (e) set out the rights of and requirements for a Member to appoint a proxy;
- (f) be accompanied by an instrument of proxy in the form which complies with the Act and this Constitution, or in any other form as the Directors may from time prescribe or accept; and
- (g) otherwise comply with the requirements of the Act.

3.6 Omission to give notice

Except as prescribed by the Act, the accidental omission to give notice of a meeting to any Member or the non-receipt of notice of a meeting by any Member will not invalidate any of the proceedings at that meeting.

4 Proceedings at the General Meeting

4.1 How Members may participate

A Member may attend an AGM or general meeting at which it is entitled to be present, and is deemed to be present, in any of the following ways:

- (a) in person;
- (b) by attorney;
- (c) by proxy;
- (d) in the case of a Member that is a body corporate, by a representative appointed by section 25QD of the Act.

4.2 Representatives of Bodies Corporate

Where:

- (a) a person present at a meeting is authorised to act as the representative of a body corporate at the meeting under an authority given by the body corporate under Section 250D of the Act; and
- (b) the person is not otherwise entitled to be present at the meeting, the body corporate will, for the purposes of this Constitution, be deemed to be present in person at the meeting.

4.3 Business at annual general meeting

The business of an AGM subject to the Act, may include any of the following, even if not referred to in the notice of meeting:

- (a) the consideration of the annual financial report, directors' report and auditor's report;
- (b) the election of directors;
- (c) the appointment of an auditor;
- (d) the fixing of any appointed auditor's remuneration.

The business of the AGM may include any other business which may be properly brought before the meeting.

4.4 Quorum for general meeting

Subject to clause 4.5, no business will be transacted at any general meeting unless a quorum is present at the beginning of the meeting. A quorum is constituted by three (3) Members of the Company present, in person or by attorney or proxy unless the Company has only one member in which case a quorum is one.

4.5 No quorum

- (a) If a quorum is not present within thirty minutes after the time appointed for the meeting, any meeting convened on a requisition of Members will be dissolved.
- (b) Any other meetings at which quorum is not present within thirty minutes after the time appointed for the meeting will be adjourned to the same day in the next week at the same time and place, or to such other day, time and place as the Directors may appoint by notice to the Members entitled to attend.
- (c) If at the adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within thirty minutes after the time appointed for the meeting, the meeting will be dissolved.

4.6 Chairperson of general meeting

- (a) The Chairperson or, in the Chairperson's absence, a Vice Chairperson is entitled to take the chair at every general meeting.
- (b) If there is no Chairperson or any Vice Chairperson or if at any meeting the Chairperson or any Vice Chairperson is not present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting or if the Chairperson or any Vice Chairperson is unwilling to act, the Directors present may choose the chair of the meeting.
- (c) If the Directors do not choose the chair of the meeting, the Members present must choose one of the Directors to take the chair of the meeting.
- (d) If no Directors are present or willing to take the chair, the Members must choose someone to take the chair at the meeting.

4.7 Powers of the Chairperson

At any general meeting a declaration by the chairperson of that meeting that a resolution or special resolution has been carried or carried by a particular majority or not carried and a recording of that declaration in the minute book will be conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of votes recorded in favour of or against that resolution or special resolution.

4.8 Adjournment of general meeting

The chairperson of a general meeting may, with the consent of the meeting, adjourn the meeting from the time to time and from the place to place, but only business left unfinished at the original meeting may be transacted at the recommencement of that adjourned meeting.

4.9 Notice of adjourned meeting

If any general meeting is adjourned for more than twenty-one days, a notice of the adjournment must be given to the Members of the Company entitled to attend, in the same manner as notice was or ought to have been given of the original meeting. In the case of all other adjournments, it is not necessary to give notice of an adjournment or of the business to be transacted at the recommencement of any adjourned meeting.

5 Voting

5.1 Resolution determined by majority

At the general meeting, unless otherwise required by this Constitution or the Act:

- (a) All questions submitted to the meeting will be decided by a simple majority of votes and in the case of equality of votes, whether on show of hands or on a poll, the chairperson shall be entitled to a second or casting vote.
- (b) In the first instance, voting will be on a show of hands. A poll may be demanded on any question before the close of the meeting by the chairperson, any Member, or their proxy, attorney or representative.
- (c) The chairperson must decide in each case the manner in which a poll will be taken, and the result of the poll will be the Resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded.
- (d) A poll demanded on the election of the chairperson or on a question of adjournment will be taken immediately.
- (e) Any dispute relating to the admission or rejection of a vote must be determined by the Board and the Board's determination made in good faith will be final and conclusive.
- (f) The demand for a poll may be withdrawn.

Votes

- (a) On a show of hands or poll every person present as a Member and entitled to vote, or as a representative, proxy or attorney of a Member and entitled to vote, will have one vote.
- (b) Subject to clause 4.1, a Member may vote in person or by proxy.
- (c) A Member who is of unsound mind or whose person or estate is liable to be dealt with in any way under the law relating to mental health may vote, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, by his or her committee or trustee or by such other person as properly has the management of his/her estate, and any such committee, trustee or other person may vote by proxy.
- (d) No Member shall be entitled to vote at any general meeting if his or her Annual Subscription (if any) is more than 2 months in arrears at the date of the meeting.
- (e) The Company may hold a meeting of its Members at two or more venues using any technology that gives the Members as a whole a reasonable opportunity to participate.

5.3 Attorney of Members

- (a) Any Member may appoint an attorney to act on their behalf at all meetings of the Company or all meetings of the Company during a specified period.
- (b) Before the first meeting at which the attorney acts on the Members' behalf, a power of attorney must be deposited at the Company's registered office or at any place specified in the notice convening that meeting.
- (c) At the first meeting and at any subsequent meeting to which the power of attorney may relate, the attorney must hand to the Chairperson of the meeting a properly executed declaration of non-revocation of the power of attorney.

6 Proxies

6.1 Instruments appointing proxy

The instrument appointing a proxy must be in writing, in the form approved by the Board annexed to this Constitution marked Annexure "A", signed by the appointor or by the appointor's attorney properly authorised in writing, or if the appointor is a body corporate, under its common seal or signed by at least two of its officers

6.2 Deposit of proxy with Company

- (a) The instrument appointing a proxy, and the original power of attorney (if any) under which it is signed or certified, must be received by the Company at least 48 hours before the time for holding the meeting by delivery to the Company's registered office, or otherwise by any other means permissible under section 250B(3) of the Act.
- (b) An instrument appointing a proxy will only be valid for 12 months from the date of its execution unless it states that it is valid for all meetings until revoked, except that any expired instrument may be used upon the recommencement of an adjourned meeting for which that instrument was originally intended.

6.3 Validity of vote given in accordance with proxy

Unless the Company has received written notice of the matter before the start of the meeting at which a proxy or an attorney votes, a vote cast by the proxy or attorney will be valid even if, before the proxy or attorney voted:

- (a) the Member dies; or
- (b) the Member is mentally incapacitated; or
- (c) the Member revokes the proxy's or attorney's appointment; or
- (d) the Member revokes the authority under which the proxy was appointed by the third party.

6.4 Form of proxy

- (a) Every instrument of proxy must specify the Member's name and address, the Company's name, the proxy's name or the name of the office held by the proxy and the meetings at which the proxy may be used, and must otherwise comply with the provision of section 250A of the Act.
- (b) The instrument of proxy may be worded so that a proxy is directed to vote either for or against each of the Resolutions to be proposed.
- (c) Any instrument of proxy deposited in accordance with this Constitution in which the name of the appointee is not specified will be deemed to be given in favour of the chairperson of the meeting to which it relates.

6.5 Resolution without meetings

- (a) Any Resolution, other than a Resolution to remove an auditor under section 329 of the Act, may be passed without a general meeting being held, if all the Members entitled to vote on the Resolution (or being corporations, their duly authorised representatives or attorneys) sign a statement that they are in favour of a Resolution set out in the document. If the Company has only one member a Resolution may be passed in any manner permitted by the Act.
- (b) Identical copies of the documented Resolution and accompanying information may be distributed for signing by different Members.
- (c) The Resolution is passed when the last Member signs the documented Resolution.

7 Directors

7.1 Numbers of Directors

The Board of Directors is to consist of no less than 3 but not more than 10 Directors.

7.2 Residence of Directors

At least 2 of the Directors must be natural persons who ordinarily reside within Australia.

7.3 Consent

Before being appointed as a Director a person must give the Company a signed consent to act as director, which must be retained by the Company.

7.4 Appointment of Directors

Directors may be appointed by Resolution of the Company in general meeting. A Director may or may not be a Member of the Company.

7.5 Chairperson

The Directors must appoint a person to be the Chairperson. The Chairperson shall preside at all meetings of the Company and the Board unless the appointment is revoked by the Board. The Chairperson may appoint, with the consent of the Board, standing committees, task forces and their respective chairpersons. The Chairperson shall perform such other duties as may be prescribed from time to time by the Board and such as are necessary to fulfill the objectives of the Company.

7.6 Vice Chairperson

The Directors may appoint one or more Directors as Vice Chairpersons. In the absence of the Chairperson or in the event of his or her inability or refusal to act, the Vice Chairperson (or, if applicable, one of the Vice Chairpersons) shall perform the duties of the Chairperson, and when so acting, shall have all powers of and be subject to all the restrictions upon the Chairperson. The Vice Chairperson (or Vice Chairpersons) shall perform such other duties as from time may be assigned by the Chairperson or by the Board.

7.7 Casual vacancies

The Directors have the power at any time to appoint a person, qualified under clause 7.8 as a Director to fill a casual vacancy because of death, resignation, removal, disqualification or otherwise. Casual appointments will hold office until the next AGM subject to clause 8.4.

7.8 Qualification for appointment as a Director

Directors must be persons having a demonstrated commitment in relation to the Objectives, in the opinion of the Company.

7.9 Auditor cannot be Director

Subject to the Act, an auditor of the Company or partner or employee or employer of an auditor cannot be appointed a Director of the Company.

7.10 Alternate Directors

A Director may appoint a person to act as an alternate Director.

- (a) the Company must indemnify each Director and Secretary and each former Director and Secretary, and may indemnify any other officer or former officer of the Company (as that term is defined in section 9 of the Act), against any liability (other than legal costs) incurred in acting as a Director, Secretary, or, where applicable, other officer of the Company other than:
 - (i) a liability owed to the Company or a Related Body Corporate;
 - (ii) a liability for a pecuniary penalty order under section 1317G or a compensation order under section 1317H of the Act; or
 - (iii) a liability that did not arise out of conduct in good faith;
- (b) the Company must indemnify each Director and Secretary and each former Director and Secretary who is or was, at the request of the Company, serving as a director or secretary of another company against any liability (other than legal costs) incurred in acting as a director or secretary of the other company other than:
 - (i) a liability owed to the other company or a Related Body

Corporate;

- (ii) a liability for a pecuniary penalty order under section 1317G or a compensation order under section 1317H of the Act; or
- (iii) a liability that did not arise out of conduct in good faith;

(c) the Company must indemnify each Director and Secretary, and each former Director and Secretary, and may indemnify any other officer or former officer (as that term is defined in section 9 of the Act), for costs and expenses (including, in the case of legal costs, costs on a full indemnity basis) incurred by a Director, Secretary or, where applicable, other officer of the Company, in defending an action for a liability incurred in acting as a Director, Secretary or, where applicable, other officer of the Company, except for legal costs incurred:

- (i) in defending or resisting any proceedings, whether civil or criminal, in which the Director, Secretary or, where applicable, other officer of the Company, is found to have a liability for which they could not be indemnified under clause 24.1(a) above;
- (ii) in defending or resisting criminal proceedings in which the Director, Secretary or, where applicable, other officer of the Company, is found guilty;
- (iii) in defending or resisting proceedings brought by the ASIC or by a liquidator for a court order if the grounds for making the order are found by the court to have been established, except for costs incurred in responding to actions taken by the ASIC or a liquidator as part of an investigation before commencing proceedings for the court order; or
- (iv) in connection with proceedings for relief to the Director, Secretary or, where applicable, other officer of the Company, under the Act in which the relief is denied by the court;

(d) the Company must indemnify each Director and Secretary and each former Director and Secretary who is or was, at the request of the Company, serving as a director or secretary of another company for costs and expenses (including, in the case of legal costs, costs on a full indemnity basis) incurred by the Director or Secretary in defending an action for a liability incurred in acting as a director or secretary of the other company, except for legal costs incurred:

- (i) in defending or resisting any proceedings, whether civil or criminal, in which the Director or Secretary is found to have a liability for which they could not be indemnified under clause 24.1 above;

- (ii) in defending or resisting criminal proceedings in which the Director or Secretary is found guilty;
 - (iii) in defending or resisting proceedings brought by the ASIC or by a liquidator for a court order if the grounds for making the order are found by the court to have been established, except for costs incurred in responding to actions taken by the ASIC or a liquidator as part of an investigation before commencing proceedings for the court order; or
 - (iv) in connection with proceedings for relief to the Director or Secretary under the Act in which the relief is denied by the court;
- (e) the Company may make a payment, or agree to make a payment, whether by way of advance, loan or otherwise, for any legal costs incurred by a Director, Secretary or, where applicable, other officer of the Company (as that term is defined in section 9 of the Act), on the condition that the Director, Secretary or, where applicable, other officer of the Company, must repay the amount paid by the Company to the extent that the Company is ultimately found not liable to indemnify the Director, Secretary or, where applicable, other officer of the Company, for those legal costs; and
- (f) the indemnities required by paragraphs (a), (b), (c) and (d) of this clause 24.1 shall, to the extent permitted by law, extend to liability, costs and/or expenses (as appropriate) arising from the negligence of the person indemnified.

24.2 Insurance

To the extent permitted by the Act the Company may pay, or agree to pay, a premium in respect of a contract insuring a person who is or has been a Director or other officer (as that term is defined in section 9 of the Act) of the Company other than a liability arising out of:

- (a) conduct involving wilful breach of duty in relation to the Company; or
- (b) a contravention of section 182 or 183 of the Act
